Historic Noblesville INDIANA

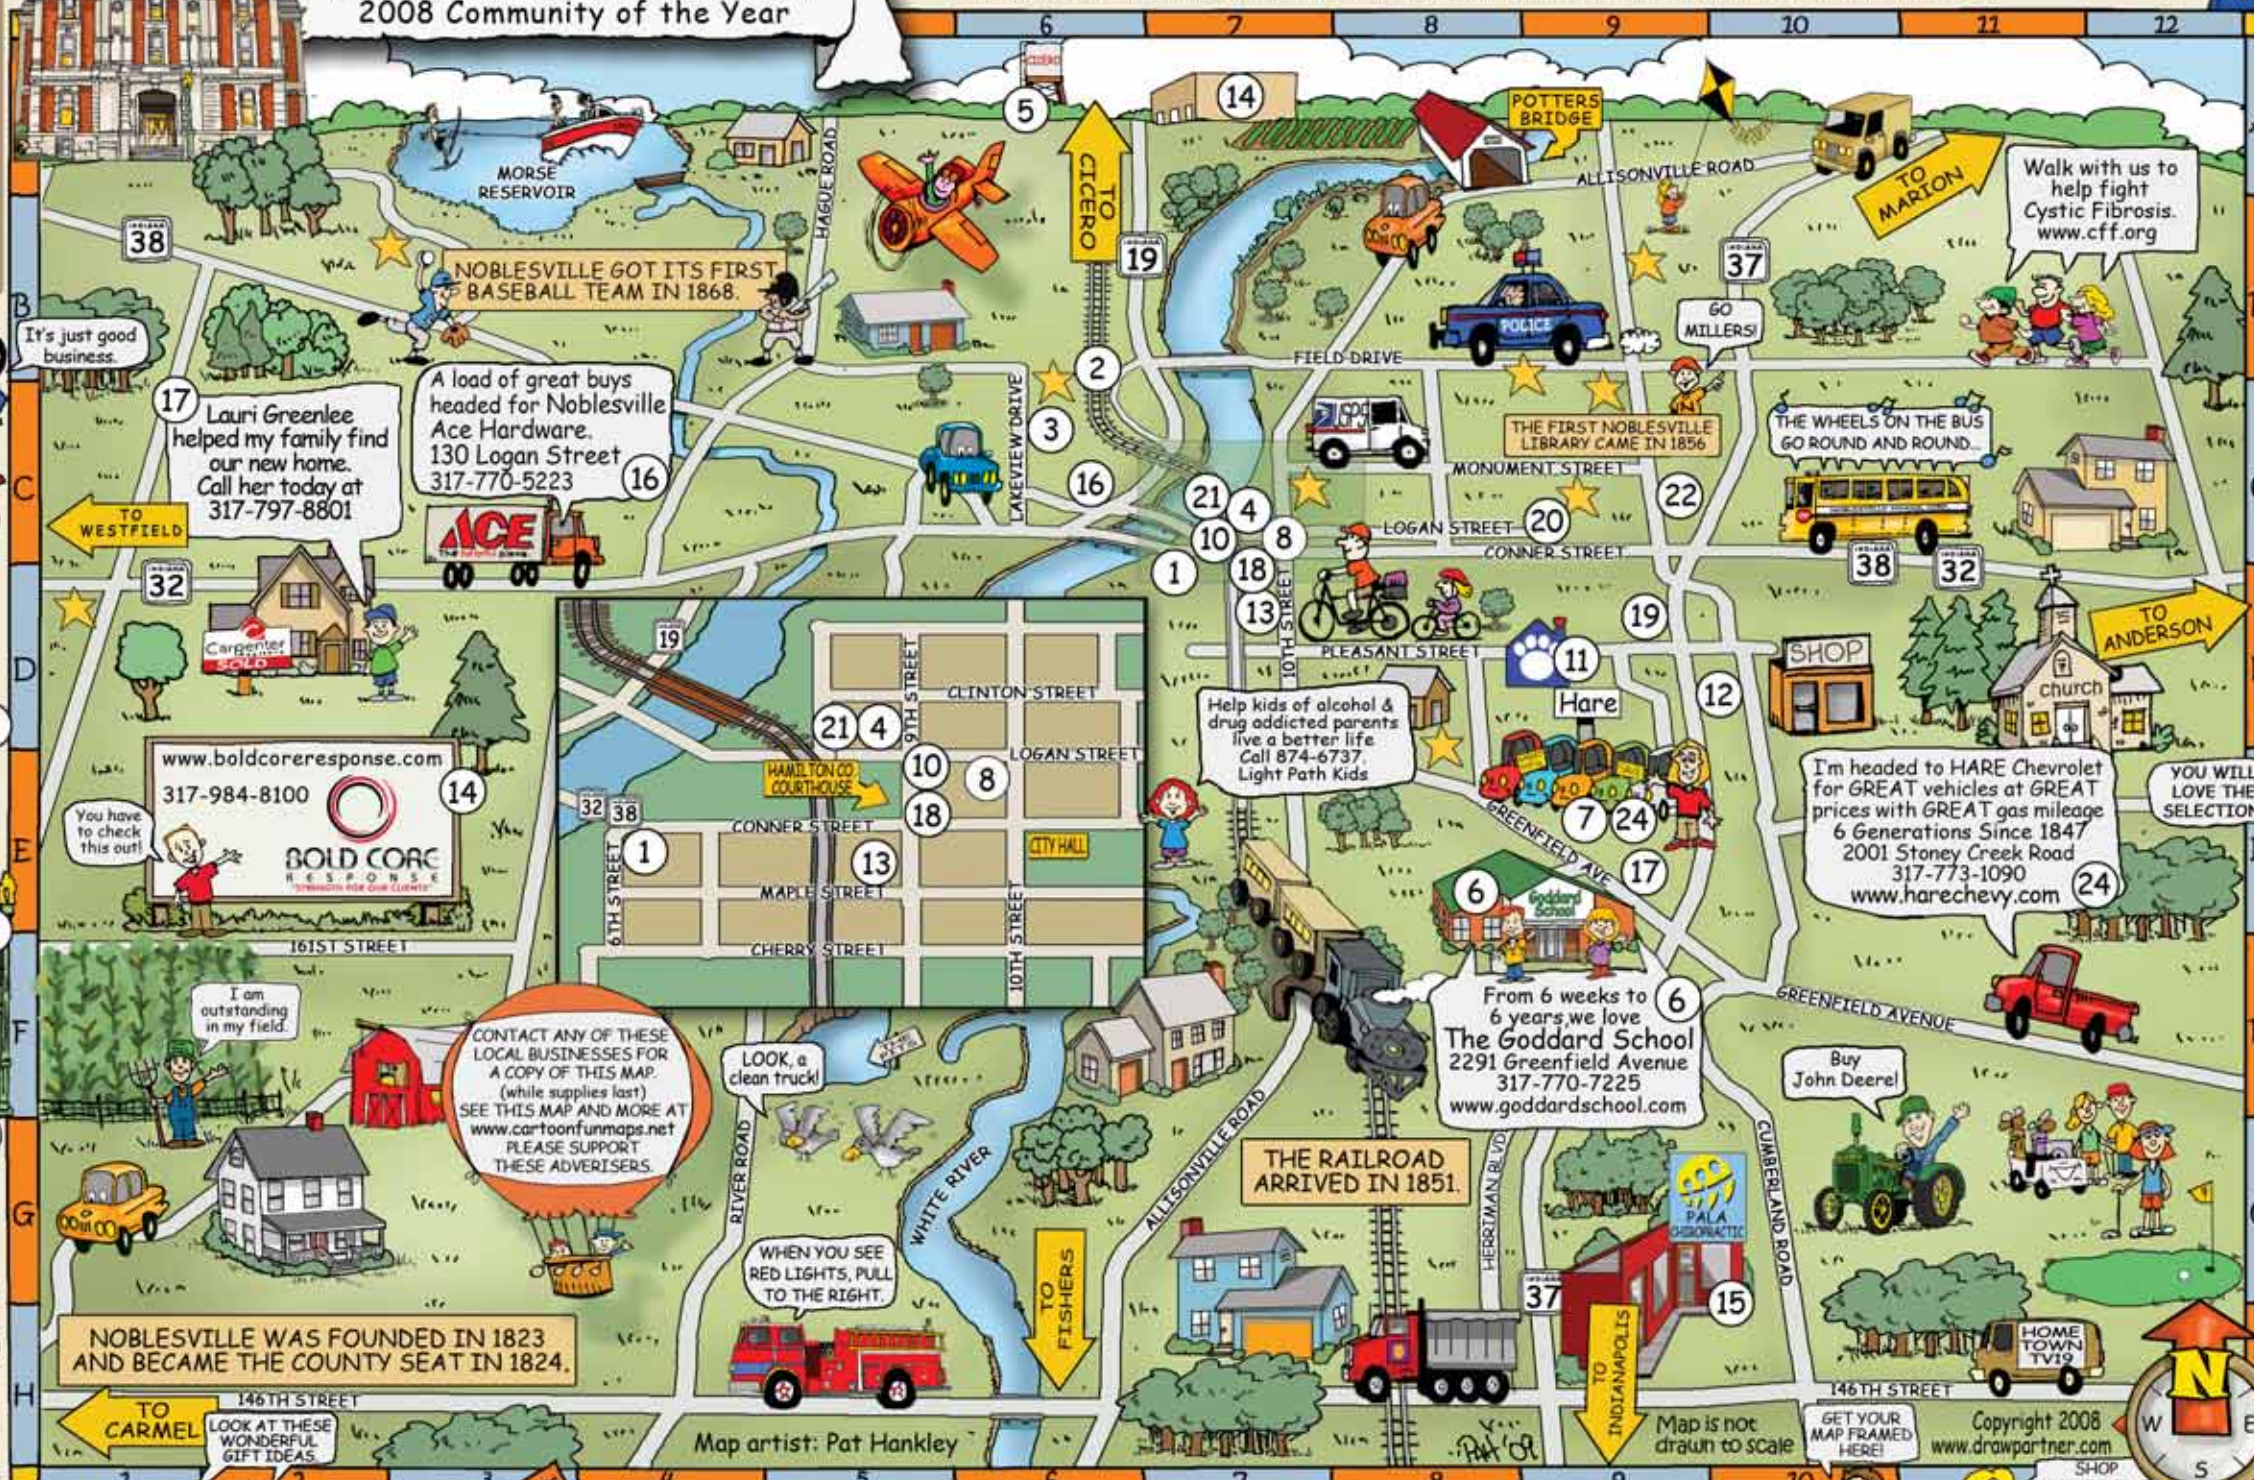

Indiana Chamber of Commerce's 2008 Community of the Year

DID YOU KNOW?

- The centerpiece of downtown Noblesville is the Square, which is the location of the Hamilton County Courthouse (completed in 1879) and the Hamilton County Sheriff's Residence and Jail (constructed in 1876).
- Hare (Chevrolet) is America's oldest transportation company (since 1847).
- Noblesville may have been named for James Noble, a state senator or, for Lavinia Noble who was engaged to Josiah Polk.
- One of the largest natural gas wells in Indiana, the "Wainwright Wonder", was discovered in Noblesville in 1887.
- The first settler in the Noblesville area was an African American fur trader named Pete Smith in 1819.

Special thanks to David Heighway for the fun facts about Noblesville.
